

RIGHT TO WORK FOR LESS

A group of legislators fighting on behalf of wealthy corporations are pushing Right to Work (RTW) in Indiana . This is a dangerous, corporate-backed push to weaken our unions and lower wages for everyone, union and non-union alike. RTW states have lower wages, less healthcare coverage, and more dangerous workplaces with higher percentages of work related deaths.

Unions of the AFL-CIO are holding rallies every day next week at the Statehouse in Indianapolis and everyone is invited. The United Steelworkers, District 7 is providing free buses (snacks provided) for anyone interested in joining the fight. Please join us in the biggest fight of our lives, a fight that if lost will ripple across the country until the middle class is gone.
